Step-2: Brainstorm, Idea Listing and Grouping

2

Brainstorm

Write down any ideas that come to mind that address your problem statement.

🕒 10 minutes

TIP

You can select a sticky note and hit the pencil (switch to sketch) icon to start drawing!

Person 1

Write easy-to-follow "how-to" guides on relevant topics in your field.

Share inspiring real-life stories and case studies for your readers to learn from.

Person 2

Create engaging listicles featuring top trends or recommended resources.

Publish honest product reviews and comparisons to help your audience make informed decisions.

Person 3

Conduct insightful interviews with experts in your niche.

Express your unique opinions and thoughts on industry news and developments.

Person 4

Encourage interactive discussions and Q&A sessions to build a community around your blog.

Create easy-to-understand infographics for complex information.

Group ideas

Take turns sharing your ideas while clustering similar or related notes as you go. Once all sticky notes have been grouped, give each cluster a sentence-like label. If a cluster is bigger than six sticky notes, try and see if you can break it up into smaller sub-groups.

🕒 20 minutes

TIP

Add customizable tags to sticky notes to make it easier to find, browse, organize, and categorize important ideas as themes within your mind.

Step-3: Idea Prioritization

4

Prioritize

Your team should all be on the same page about what's important moving forward. Place your ideas on this grid to determine which ideas are important and which are feasible.

20 minutes

TIP

Participants can use their cursors to point at where sticky notes should go on the grid. The facilitator can confirm the spot by using the laser pointer holding the H key on the keyboard.
